Elder Candidates

Kiron Madasu (new)

Kiron and his wife, Madhuri, have attended NCBC for 14 years, becoming members in 2012. They are founding members of the Indian Christian Fellowship, where Kiron uses his gifts of teaching and encouragement.

Kiron and his family have volunteered in various ministries over the years and he looks forward to serving the Lord and New Covenant on the Elder Board. He enjoys playing tennis, following current affairs, vacations and spending time with family.

Kiron's favorite Bible verse is Philippians 4:6:

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

Ed Luebe (re-elect)

Ed and his wife, Christine, were married at New Covenant in 1985 (formerly First Covenant Church) and have been actively involved in various ministries ever since.

Together they are currently serving as Small Group coaches and Ed has completed a three-year term on the Elder Board. In the past, Ed has served on the Elder Board, Deacon Board, Men's Ministry Team, Worship Team, search committees and other areas where his gifts could be used.

Ed and Christine enjoy travel, hiking/walking, and spending time with their children and grandkids. Ed says that those who know him well describe him as someone who loves people, is caring, committed and a faithful friend.

One of Ed's favorite Bible verses is Romans 8:28:

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
